The drying process, called “appassimento” in Italian, gives body, roundness and a great personality to this wine.

It is produced in a beautiful hillside vineyard in Valpolicella, near Verona, at the foot of the Dolomite mountains.

Amarone Bailo presents deep scents of ripe cherry, prunes and blackberry, important structure, thick velvety tannins and a wide bouquet.

Ideal with tagliatelle with mushrooms, Bolognese spaghetti, T-bone steak, pork shank, roasted lamb, seasoned cheeses.
